President.—He is only a Matric.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Was there a Government Proceedings in the time of Mr. Vijayaraghavachariar that only graduates should be appointed as Devaswam Inspectors?

Mr. V. K. Aravindaksha Menon.—I think Devaswam is a tabooed subject.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.— He is a permanent auditor. And now only he was made Inspector of Devaswams, and so it can be discussed.

President.—It is not an invariable rule that there should be no exceptions.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—If it is an exception to the rule, then I want to know why?

President.—There is a rule that graduates only should be appointed as Inspectors. If, in a particular case, that rule was not followed, then it necessarily follows that it is an exception to the rule.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.— What were the circumstances that led to the appointment of this man?

President.—Those details are not before us.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.— Is he related to the Sarvadhikariakar or the Comptroller of Accounts?

President.—Yes, related to both.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—May I know the total population of Pisharodies in the State?

President.—In the Census report we make classifications of Pisharodies, Ambalavasis, Variyars, and others, and so the Census report might show that.

Rude behaviour of an outsider in the office of the Superintendent of Agriculture and Panchayats.

268. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether a clerk of the Agricultural Superintendent's office reported to the Superintendent about the 'rude' behaviour of an outsider towards the clerk while he was on duty about the beginning af May 1929; if so, will a copy of the report be placed on the Table;

(b) is this gentleman the same person who entered the Trichur Municipal Office on 14th Meenam 1104 and interrupted the meeting of the Council as a result of which the Chairman had to dissolve the meeting?

Mr. I. Raman Menon.— (a) 1. Yes. 2. Government consider that no public purpose is served by placing the report on the Table.

(b) Yes.
